THE FLY – A NIGHT-TIME ADVENTURE!

By Tony Bradman

1 It's bedtime!

2 There's a fly inside my bedroom!

3 It's buzzing round my wardrobe.

4 It's on the window pane!

5 It's flying round the lampshade.

6 It's landing on my pillow!

THE FLY – THE SURPRISE RETURN!

By Tony Bradman

1 It's walking on my nose!

2 It's looking in my eyeball!

3 Phew! It's flying off again!

4 It's buzzing and it's buzzing!

5 The fly's buzzed off and left me.

6 But wait... do I hear buzzing? It's back, surprise, surprise!

WHAT MAKES THIS POEM FUN?

- The fly keeps returning.
- Its buzzing disturbs the boy's sleep.
- Repeated words create rhythm.
- The unexpected ending makes the poem humorous.

VOCABULARY CORNER

BUZZ	: A continuous humming sound.
CEILING	: The upper inside surface of a room.
BEDPOST	: A post at the corner of a bed.
INSANE	: Very mad or crazy.